MISS FLORENCE DARLEY COMES FROM AUSTRALIA

Miss Florence Darley, a comedienne of New South Wales, who has started her stage career in America by an engagement with Jean Bedini's super-revue "Peek-a-Boo," which is this week's attraction at the Gayety Theater, has brought to burlesque the identical songs, the work of American composers, with which she delighted musical comedy audiences in the Antipodes.

The Australian people are greatly interested in the American stage, the songs produced in this country, and the musical plays that drift to their land from the United States. Miss Darley is authority for this statement. She played in musical shows in Sydney and Brisbane three years ago. It was the keen interest manifested in American productions by Australian people that inspired her to come to this country.

THE ARCADE.

Throngs of dancers are nightly enjoying the perfect floor of the vast arcade Auditorium, swaying to the intriguing rhythm of the music of the well-trained orchestra.

The up-to-the-minute novelty staged for next Wednesday evening will be a surprise "Balloon Party," when many prizes will be delivered "from the air," besides which that chic danseuse, Donna Marea, will again delight the audience with several elaborate costume dances.

Tomorrow will be a "Paul Jones" night, when a number of these old-time favorites will be danced.

BERMAN OPTICAL CO.

Gentlemen—

Having inherited nearsightedness and consequently compelled to wear glasses for the past 30 years, I feel fully competent and qualified to say that the pair invisible Bifocals prescribed by one of your specialists a few weeks ago have really opened my eyes to the inconveniences I have suffered from glasses in past. It is with gratitude I thank you for your conscientious examination and the grand result.

Wishing you the success you merit, I am sincerely,

(Signed) MRS. N. W. O'CONNOR, Lorton, Va.BERMAN OPTICAL CO.

Dear Sirs:—

It is with a feeling of pleasure and absolute satisfaction that I voluntarily wish to thank you for the relief I have found in your invisible Bifocals. I feel like a new man and highly recommend your work to those who need glasses.

(Signed) LIEUT. J. L. PLEMMANS, 504 8th St. N. E.BERMAN OPTICAL CO.

Gentlemen—

After leaving your office yesterday I realized I had not told you how grateful I am for the relief my new glasses are giving me. This

I want to say now, and to assure you that I will gladly tell my friends of your success with my case. If my friends do not follow my advice it will not be from lack of effort on my part.
